

OWN THE WHOLE WORLD #13 July 1986

Akron Ohio

Copernicus- Victim of the Sky(Nevermore Inc. lp)... wildman shaman stuff here... Copernicus (AKA Joseph Smalkowski) holds court w/Kant and other dead philosophers in the horse latitudes as a qualifying funk band grinds it out... Martin Scorsese drops by to direct "The Lament of Joe Apples" and if this all sounds far out and appealing, then check it out... 2nd release by performing artist-and-more Copernicus... real intriguing and reaffirms my belief that the world needs more composers intent on kicking the hell out of stylistic boundaries...
