

13 » 18

DEAD MAN'S CURVE catalogue, releases 13 to 18
DIE FORM — March '87
RECIPE
THE HOLLOW MEN
CORPSES AS BEDMATES
COPERNICUS — April
POPPI UK — June
DEAD MAN'S CURVE, 55 Sutton Road,
 London N10 1HH
 Manufactured and distributed by Red
 Rhino and the Cartel
 Made in England

"Two bongos and a bing and I'm home"

DMC 013 DIE FORM: A Second Vision Of Fetish
 French techno electro dance music with sexual deviant outbursts. Excellent and pulsating rhythms

DMC 014 RECIPE: Skinny-Dipping
 Classic cult pop from Recipe on an album featuring all of their singles plus several new tracks.

DMC 015 THE HOLLOW MEN: Tales Of The Riverbank
 Leeds duo develop their sound on a fine debut album brimming with strings and powerchords

DMC 016 CORPSES AS BEDMATES: Venus Handcuffs
 Salt Lake City's finest demented blues outfit with an evil streak and some haunting vocals. Debut LP

DMC 017 COPERNICUS: From Bacteria
 Crazy Brooklyn poet with Def arrangements and tongue in cheek verbal assaults. First UK release

DMC 018 POPPI UK: Poppi UK
 Compilation of Poppi UK's greatest tracks from their previous Dutch releases. Mad guitar pop with powerful arrangements

GONE CLEAN ROUND THE BEND