COPERNICUS: "Victim of The Sky" LP
(SKI)

...more post-genre nerve spill by the world's forgotten dad. There's a great ten minute shouted, drunken diatribe that's held up t' repeat-listenin' pretty fuggin' well. There 's also all sorta diff visions' dish-ed up by a guy who seems t' feel that eternity is a road down which he'd best be skedaddlin', pinchin' all the nips he can. The arrangements dig holes all the heck over the "Plain of Styles", but the best 'un's have this sorta un-pseudo-Beat-beat that makes me wanna click my fingers like a fucker.
