

WONDERING WHERE TO GO LATE AT NIGHT now that "The Rocky Horror Picture Show" isn't playing around anymore? Wonder no more. Copernicus is here. Copernicus, whose albums include "Nothing Exists," "Victim of the Sky," "Deeper" and "Null," embraces the philosophy that "everything, including the atom itself, is changing so quickly that nothing can exist," expands on that intense philosophy this weekend — and for four additional weekends — at the Theater for the New City,

EXTRA ENTERTAINMENT! THIS JUST IN...

First Ave. at 10 St. The shows begin at 11 p.m. and extend past the witching hour. — P.O'H.