1. BEAUTIFUL HUMANITY

Humanity is made up of the very same elements that make up all of the most beautiful and pure expressions of nature. Humanity is as beautiful and as pure as the clearest crystal lake on planet Earth.

Humanity is as vibrant and as beautiful as the tallest tree on the Earth and as beautiful as the most dynamic flower ever to blossom from the Earth.

Nonexistence brings the freedom to have all that beauty spontaneously expressed and is the primary defense against the ignorant suffering producing forces stemming from the illusion of identity found in all societies.

HUMANITY WAS NOT BORN WITH ORIGINAL SIN!

Humanity is as beautiful and as pure as the clearest crystal lake on planet Earth. Humanity is as vibrant and as beautiful as the tallest tree on the Earth and as beautiful as the most dynamic flower ever to blossom from the Earth.

Humanity is made up of the very same elements that make up all of the most beautiful and pure expressions of nature.

2. BALLOON DREAMS

You are forgetting that what you perceive with your bare human senses is an irrelevant illusion.

This tremendous, bogus, narcissistic reverence that places what is human above everything else, whether animal, vegetable, or mineral is an outgrowth of fifteenth century Western European Renaissance ignorance and still, unfortunately, persists today.

The illusion of humanity has no special importance to reality.

If humanity dropped a million atomic bombs on itself, it would be irrelevant to reality.

The earthly temperature would rise and the atoms would move a little faster due to the higher temperature, but the atoms and their parts would continue on with their infinite self-energy!

For reality, humanity is no more important or different than a worm, a pig, a dog, a puff of gas, a drop of water or a rock.

COME DOWN FROM THE FALSE HIGH PEDESTAL OF BALLOON DREAMS AND LOOK THROUGH

THE SPACE OF THE CURTAIN THAT HAS OPENED AND SEE THE REAL!

FIRST, FORGET YOURSELF, THEN GENTLY STEP INSIDE AND SMELL THE COFFEE COOKING AND HAVE SOME BREAKFAST.

3. ABSOLUTE TRUTH IS POSSIBLE.

Ten million years staring at reality and calling reality what its bare senses could perceive.

Calling what its bare senses could perceive as real when it never really was real.

It was an illusion.

Reality is something different. Reality could not be seen with their eyes or tasted with their tongue.

Reality was something invisible to their senses.

Ten million years thinking that their senses were perceiving the real, but they were wrong.

They were wrong.

Absolute Truth was not possible for them.

They had to make up myths.

They had to make up stories to explain what they could not understand.

But now, we understand about the atomic makeup of matter.

We understand that the eyes are made of atoms and all matter is made of atoms.

And we can relate to the atom

and respect the atom

and respect the atom

and feel that

ABSOLUTE TRUTH is possible for

humanity.

ABSOLUTE TRUTH is possible for

humanity.

ABSOLUTE TRUTH

is possible for

humanity.

ABSOLUTE TRUTH

is possible for

humanity.

ABSOLUTE TRUTH

is possible for
humanity.

We're gonna get It!
We're gonna understand It!

And the Truth shall set us
free!

Delving into the soul of the atom.

Caressing the electron, the neutron and quark.

The Truth will make us
free.

We will be free when we have lost this identity.

(chant)

*La verdad nos va hacer libres explorando el centro del
atomo.*

*La verdad absoluta es
possible.*

ABSOLUTE TRUTH is

possible.

Possible.

Possible.

Possible.

Possible.

Possible.

Possible.

Possible.

Possible.

Possible.

We're gonna get it!

We're gonna get it!

We're gonna get it!

We're gonna get it even if we're not here.

4. FREE OF ME!

I closed my eyes
in the focus of the noise around me and

poured into the spotty
blackness with my elementary school knowledge of the atom.

I closed my eyes tightly.

I could feel my mind take over.

The energy was focused
in my mind.

I could see the billions of atoms
racing around like little dots of light banging into each other sometimes repelled sometimes joining to another atom and making a molecule.

The movement is intense with atoms bouncing up and down and I can hear the crashing humongous atomic noise as the meetings take place.

I can feel the depth of this strange world.

I can see my body being part of this world with the movement of my arms invisible in the sea of atoms as my body loses its

form and I am no longer
here.

My body disappears in this sea of atoms and though I know the general area where my body is, I cannot see my body!

There is no line
separating my body from the sea of atoms around me.

I am only
atoms!

I can see the atoms of my body leaving the general area of my body and joining with atoms around the area of my body.

I disappear here in the twinkling racing speckled atomic sea.

There is no possibility of identity here.

There is no human body
here.

There is no evidence of a me in this atomic world.

I have now become free of me!

I have become MAGOVA! *

**MAGOVA is a term invented by Copernicus to describe the entire subatomic Universe. It is first mentioned and elaborated in his book, "Immediate Eternity."*

5. DUST

Who said
that

I was going to return to dust?

Who said
that

I was going to return to dust?

All matter is made of atoms.

All matter is
atomic dust.

All matter is
atomic dust.

All matter is
atomic dust.

All matter is
atomic dust.

All matter is
atomic dust.

All matter is
atomic dust.

All matter is
atomic dust.

All matter is
atomic dust.

My body is made of
atomic dust.

My body is
dust.

My body is
dust.

My body is
dust.

My body is
dust.

My body is
dust.

I will not return to
dust!

I am dust!

I am dust!

I will not return to dust.

From dust thou camest and to dust thou shalt return

is a lie.

We are all atomic dust.

Everything is atomic dust.

Atomic dust.
Atomic dust.
Now and forever and forever.
Everything is eternal atomic
dust.
Everything is immediately
Eternal atomic dust.
Atomic
dust.
Atomic
dust.
Atomic
dust.
Everything is atomic
dust.
Dust.
Dust.
Dust.
Dust.
Dust.
Dust.
Love that
dust.
Love that
dust.
Love that
dust.
Love that
dust.
Love that
dust.
Love the atomic dust.
Everything is atomic
dust.
Love that atomic dust.
Love that atomic dust.
Love that atomic dust.
Love that atomic dust.
Love that atomic dust.
Dust.
Love.
We're never gonna return to atomic dust.

We are atomic dust!
Atomic dust.
We're all atomic dust!
We are atomic dust.
We're all atomic dust!
We're all atomic dust.

6. FEEL THE NONEXISTENCE.

Life does not exist.
Matty Fillou does not exist.
He was never born.
He needs a haircut right now.
Like the pressing sound of nothing
that will walk the night
where nothing can be.
Nothing can ever be
and everything can be.
Chocolate theme.
Chocolate sound.
And nothing could ever
be.
Blues for John.
John was never here.
No one was ever here.
No one will ever be here.
No one has ever been here.
There is no here.
No lips.
No turn of the corner.
No wind that cries to the screaming sky.
No passion that walks alone
in the fired lava of the Sun.
No Sun that can see.
No Universe that walks into its own passion by the galaxy of no return.
No line in the Sun!

No goblet in the lips!
No red color on the sound of the lost dream where the blood cries into its own passioned kiss
turning on its own oblivious dream.
Walk.
There was no John.
There is no you.
There is no here. There is no music.
Feel the nothingness.
Feel your nothingness.
Lift your arms.
Understand your nothingness.
Free of identity.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.
Feel.

7. THE CARROT

Atomic consciousness is the constant awareness of the atomic and subatomic makeup of the entire Universe.
With total atomic consciousness,
you are then able to become a conscious part of the Universe and your Being will flow

like a river from the mountain
like beta rays from the Sun
like a tree to the sky
like a bird in the wind
like an electron in an atom
like a fish in the ocean
like a black hole in the center of a galaxy
like a semen entering into an ovulating egg
like a tear falling from an eye
like the Moon revolving around the Earth
like the Earth revolving around the Sun
like mother's milk dripping from mother's breast like a snowflake resting on the thin branches of a swaying tree
like lava disgorging from the center of the Earth
like two atoms of hydrogen joining to one atom of oxygen making a molecule of water like an orgasm electrifying the bowels of a human being like raindrops falling from a cloud like the spinning Earth hurling through the Universe at a velocity of 1 3/4 million miles per hour joined by gravity to the Sun
like a baby turtle breaking through the mature eggshell and surrounded by sand crawls upward through the sand to the clear air and heads directly crawling to the open sea
like a snake crawling out from its abandoned old skin like a man discovering that he and his identity are only illusions created by the misinterpretation by his ignorant mind of the perceptions of his bare senses and that now,
free of identity,
every moment becomes the perfect moment
of being absolutely free to express the inner conversation
no matter what are the immediate circumstances.
The carrot for attaining MAGOVA consciousness is the immediate wisdom

and the immediate freedom
achieved through atomic consciousness
in the nonexistent mind.

8. THE STICK

The entire history of
humanity
is clearly the story of a bewildered creature
trying to survive and prosper through trial and error in philosophical ignorance.
Ignorance brings the mistakes, the pain, and the suffering.
The stick is the nonstop pain and suffering
caused by the ignorance.
For humanity, this ignorance is a horrible
stick.
Instead of pure rivers flowing from the melting mountain snows,
in ignorance, we have rivers of acid caused by human generated pollution poisoning all life in and around them.
Instead of filtered rays from the Sun
through the ozone level,
we have direct poisonous rays unfiltered
due to ignorant selfish man's depletion of the ozone.
Instead of a multitude of birds in the wind,
we have multiple bird extinctions.
Instead of the physical understanding and consequent positive philosophical application of the real meaning of the atomic and subatomic world, we have the horrendous instantaneous vaporization of 300,000 people in Hiroshima and Nagasaki.
Instead of fish in the oceans,

we have ocean deserts depleted by the ignorant world's fishermen with their massive nets that kill all the aquatic life they cover.
Instead of healthy babies,
very often the mother fights for her right to kill her baby right inside her womb!
Over 37 million dead babies through legal abortions in one generation in the United States alone!
If the mother has the right to kill her daughter or son, the daughter or son should have the right to kill their mother!
Instead of emotion based on enlightenment, we have tears of pain and suffering filled with fear based on ignorance.
Instead of the Moon revolving around the Earth,
we now have new territory to fight over and kill each other over.
Instead of the pure gem, Earth, revolving around the Sun,
we have a sick planet infected by a massive plague called
humanity!
WHAT A SHAME THAT HUMANITY HAS BECOME EARTH'S PLAGUE!
Instead of breast feeding the newborn with the health and warmth it needs from its mother, we have bottled sterile milk because either the mother doesn't care to feed her baby or the mother is too filthy inside with her milk poisoned by nicotine, alcohol, cocaine, caffeine, heroin, pollution from the air.
Where the snow falls high in the mountains,
the trees are dead.
All killed by factory smoke.
Only the lava cannot be stopped. The lavaone of Earth's powerful defensive purifiers against the plague of an ignorant humanity.
So much of Earth's water is polluted from humanity's selfish acts based on ignorance.
Sexual orgasms become religions unto themselves, "Oh God!"

The spinning Earth joined to the Sun hurls through the Universe with the ignorant human lesions on its back,
but this too shall pass.
The Earth was not especially made for
humanity.
Like the dinosaurs, all that will be left after Armageddon will be man's petrified charred bones and, if lucky,
a grass covered Empire State Building.
Instead of the baby turtles racing to the sea,
their eggs are dug up and fried and eaten by the human plague.
The snakes become shoes and purses and man, with full knowledge that he exists, proud on his deathbed at how much materialism he had accumulated during his lifetime, croaks- as his children head to the courts
to divvy up the spoils.
The full circle of the ignorant man who believes that he exists."

*"Copernicus' powers of prediction have been documented in his book, "Immediate Eternity." On page 7, he wrote in 1999,
"I foresee major foreign violence being visited upon the cities and population of the United States of America."*

9. THERE IS NO DIFFERENCE.

There is no difference between what happens in a human being and what happens with the rest of the Universe.
You have to stop separating the human being from the rest of the Universe.
This separation from the rest of the Universe is the horrendous error that major Western religions have propagated.
Instead of a human being evolving from the dust of the Universe and thus being subject to all the rules that work

everywhere in the Universe,
these major Western religions gave man a separate special creation
and injected the human being with a special soul with a special relationship with God and even made man in the image and likeness of God.
They separated man from the Sun, the stars, the oceans, the fish, and all of the rest of objects and creatures detectable.
This ignorant separation of humanity from the rest of the Universe was and is a serious philosophical error.
A human being is part of everything and evolved from everything
and is subject to all the forces to which everything is subject.
Humanity is not different or special, but rather, just like everything else both animate and inanimate.

10. VIVA THE NEW!

As the prophet spoke of the eternal end of the old days and the beginning of the new days, like the cells of which it was made,
humanity had unwittingly committed suicide.
The charred eyes that could never see
would see no more.
The nonexistent old would not reach its ultimate philosophical potential.
A silent planet would begin new again fresh from the heat and stench of the

failed human experiment.
What was the illusion of humanity was now
atomic heat.
This heat would rise in a cloud and dissipate once again back into the Universe.
The sound and fury that signified nothing no longer screamed its unenlightened cry of meaninglessness uselessly
into the eternal silence.
The nonexistent new would stir from the left behind ashes
as a new evolutionary illusion and a new experiment,
a new cycle from an old ending absorbing the heat of the Sun and prospering on an Earth that was alive and neutral to all that it engendered.
The human party was over.
A new party had begun.
Viva the new!
Everything is always new in reality.
The end is the beginning.
Every moment is Apocalypse
and every moment is Genesis.
