

COPERNICUS

N O T H I N G E X I S T S

COPERNICUS began with COPERNICUS, Larry Kirwan and Pierce Turner in 1978 at the Five Spot, St. Marks Place, N.Y.C. Kirwan and Turner are the musical mother and father, but every musician who partakes designs his or her own part with vocals spontaneously created and performed by COPERNICUS.

Side One

I Won't Hurt You
Blood
I Know What I Think
Quasimodo

Side Two

Let Me Rest
Nagasaki
Atomic Nevermore

COPERNICUS: vocals

Pierce Turner: keyboards and vocals

Larry Kirwan: guitar, keyboards and vocals

Thomas Hamlin: drums

Jeffrey Lad: flute and keyboards with effects

Chris Katris: guitar

Peter Collins: bass

Steve Menasche: marimba and percussion

Fred Parcels: affected trombone

Paddy Higgins: bodhran and floor toms

Andi Leahy: violin and vocals

Fionnghuala: flute and vocals

Jimmy Zhivago: guitar and piano

Fred Chalenor: bass

Engineers:

Ron Bacchiochi

Andy Heermans

Michael Theodore

Executive Producer: Joseph Smalkowski

Dedicated to Emily Glen

Special thanks to Marcela without whom this album would not be possible.

Cover photo: Eric Darton
Artwork: Mary Ellen Strom

JACKET MADE IN CANADA

ski Records, P.O. Box 150, Brooklyn, New York 11217

No

Maybe

In

my mind-

Because

It

Sees
what

It

Sees.

Copernicus